CONTESTS FROM KENTUCKY HEARD

NATIONAL COMMITTEE ABANDONED TIME LIMIT YESTERDAY AND LISTENED TO ALL ARGUMENT PRESENTED.

Seventeen Delegates for Taft and One for Roosevelt Were the Results of the Day's Work—Francis J. Heney's Comments Called Forth Sarcastic Remarks From Taft Men.

Chicago, June 11.—One delegate for Col. Roosevelt, the first awarded him since the national committee began the hearing of contest cases last Friday and seventeen for President Taft were the net results of to day's session of Republican national committee.

In all one hundred and one delegates have been accorded President Taft since the convention opened its hearings. The one placed in the Roosevelt column was D. C. Edwards from the eleventh district of Kentucky. The Taft forces on the committee refused, by a vote of thirty-three to nineteen to seat both the Roosevelt delegates, which gave Col. Roosevelt and President Taft each one delgate from the district.

The half victory for Col. Roosevelt came at the end of a day in which all of the other much- discussed contests from Kentucky had been decided in President Taft's favor. In some of these the Roosevelt men had acquiesced: in others they ahd mustered a vote of from 11 to 17 against the Taft decisions.

Senator Borah, the most active Roosevelt figure on the committee, protested against the splitting of the of the eleventh district delegation.

"There is no justification of it," he declared. "If one is given both should be."

Arthur I. Vorys, of Ohio, had made the motion to seat the divided delegation. John G. Capers, Senator Borah and Francis J. Heney in an effort to adopt a substitute to seat both Roosevelt men, but they could muster only 19 votes, as follows: Barker, Knight, Cavender, DuPont, Borah, Lowden Burnam, Wight, Simpson, Kellog, Flanigan, Ward, Capers, Thorson, Monday, Lyon, Rogers, and Bebser.

The split delegation was then unanimously seated, President Taft's four contested delegates at large from Kentucky, headed by Senator Bradley were seated with only eleven votes in the negative. He was given the six from the first, second and tenth districts unanimously.

The contest against the two in the fourth district was withdrawn and the five from the seventh, eighth and eleventh districts were won against the votes of the Roosevelt forces.

Sharp interchanges between Francis J. Heney of San Francisco and Taft members of the committee characterized the long day's session over the Kentucky contests.

Mr. Heney, who will appear tomorrow in the hearing of the California contests, repeatedly referred to frauds in Kentucky elections and compared conditions to those that existed in California under Abraham Ruef. Early objections to his remarks were followed late in the afternoon by sarcastic replies of "thanks" from Taft members of the committee when he criticised their decisions.

Governor Hadley of Missouri, who is to come before the committee this week as a Roosevelt contestant from Missouri, was also in the committee during the day on the proxy of another member.

Restrictions upon the time of argument were abandoned in the Kentucky cases to day, and all evidence was heard at length, as a result the committee tomorrow will begin its session at 9 o'clock, with the prospect of night sessions the balance of the week.

Barnes Has No Compromise.

A murmur of gossip suggesting a possible compromise candidate which swept through the hotel lobies to day and tonight, drew forth a vigorous statement from William Barnes Jr., of New York. Mr. Barnes gave out the following comment, on behalf of the Taft forces:

"There has been talk and some newspaper publication this evening regarding a compromise candidate for president. This proposal is purely a ruse on the part of the Roosevelt forces who realize that they will be defeated in teh convention and are now endeavoring to break up the Taft alignment by talking compromise.

"Mr. Roosevelt said, and this I agree with him, 'the compromise candidate will be me.' That the Roosevelt men are talking compromise otnight is positive evidence of hte loss of their cause and of tehir hope of creating dissension in teh ranks of President Taft, through appealing to the very natural instinct on the part of any Republican to avert a sharp division of forces. But the purpose is perfectly clear to the delegates here assembled.

"My only object in making this statement is that it may be given such currency that it will be clear to the Republicans throughout the country."

Mr. Barnes was emphatic in his declaration that there would be no compromise.

PROTESTED AGAINST BILL.

Washington, June 11.—A party of railroad officials protested to the house inetr-state comittee to day against the passage of the Martin 8 hour day bill for railroad telegraphers and employes in teh operation of trains.

NO LIGHT ON MURDER MYSTERY

AUTHORITIES ARE BAFFLED IN SEARCH FOR FIEND WHO KILLED IOWA FAMILY.

Business at Standstill in Villisca While Posses Scour Country for Clues—Bloodhounds Said to Have Found New Trail.

Villisca, Iowa, June 11.—Another day passed without the authorities being able to secure a scintilla of a clue by which they might make an arrest for the murder of the entire family of Joseph Moore and two girl guests Sunday night. The bloodhounds were again put to work on a trail which they took up last night and took their keeper over another big stretch of territory. Their efforts were centered in the west bottoms of the Nodaway river from whence a report came early in the evening that the dogs had found a fresh trail and that foot prints similar to those found on the east side had been discovered. The coroner's jury held its first session this afternoon and heard evidence from several witnesses, mostly relatives of the family. By these witnesses it was brought out that Mr. Moore had had no business dealings which might involve him in any way, or cause an enemy to seek revenge. One relative, however, tsetified that ther had been an estrangement between Moore and two brothers-in-law, and that considerable bitterness exisited between them as a result of domestic troubles. Another session will be held tomorrow, when it is expected new witnesses will be on hand to testify.

The city did little business to day. Nearly everybody joined in the hunt for the murderer, and when it was learned that the dogs had struck a fresh trail west of the river an enlarged dragnet was put out. A posse from Clarinda joined in the hunt, which was kept up well into the night. Two handkerchiefs were found in the woods during the afternoon, but it was believed they had been used by marksmen as targets, several bullet holes having been found in them.

The funerals of the victims will be held to morrow.

DIEKELMAN ON STAND.

Given Strong Testimony In McNamara Case.

Los Angeles, Calf., June 11.—Ed Nockles secretary of the central labor council of Chicago, and said to have been teh personal representative of Samuel Gompers in the connection with the McNamara case was designated as the man who had "charge" of him in Chicago after he had won over to the McNamara defense, according toteh testimony to day of F. A. Diekelman in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow for alleged jury bribery.

Diekelman also testified that Bert Hannerstrome, who gave him money ot go to Chicago had taken him to the office of former Mayor Edward F. Dunne of that city where the latter had assured him that Hannerstrome was a brother-in-law of Clarence S. Darrow. cb

Diekelman was the most important witness yesterday placed on teh stand by the prosecution for the purpose of showing that the members of the McNamara defense had sought to corrupt witnesses as well as jurors. Diekelman testified at length concerning efforts made by agents of teh McNamara defense to persuade him to desert the prosecution and of numerous offers of financial betterment made to gain his consent. One of the offers, Diekelman said was that of teh management of any one of a string of cafes which Hannerstrome told him were owned by the American Feeralton of Labor.

ERUPTION FATAL TO MANY NATIVES

DESTRUCTION FOLLOWS IN WAKE OF VOLCANIC EXPLOSION.

Ashes Fall to a Depth of Twenty Feet Killing Vegetable and Animal Life—Boats Will Be Sent at Once to Stricken Region.

Seward, Alaska, June 11.—A cannery tender from Uyak, on the Shelikof Strait short off Kidiak Island, brought word to day that the people there are safe, but it is though that seven fishing villages, with a total population of 200, on the Alaska peninsula in the immediate vicinity of Katmai volcano were destroyed by the eruption of last Thursday.

Resumes Normal State.

Seward, Alaska, June 11.—The villages, whose inhabitants, mostly natives, are believed to have perished, were Cold Bay, Kaitmai, Kanatuk, Douglas, Savanoosky and Kangamute.

The volcano has resumed its normal state and the atmosphere is clearing so that boats will be able to get into the stricken district with relief.

At Uyak the fall of ashes amounted to four inches. The people there are not suffering. This was one of the places on Kodiak Island, where it was feared the greatest damage was done, an dthe news from there gives hope that all the people on the island are safe. No news has been received from Afognak Island, which lies only a few miles north of Kodiak Island.

Afognak, which is included in the Chugach national forest and fish culture reserve, has a population of 600. The island is in a direct line with the course taken by the ashes from Katmai.

Ashes Twenty Feet Deep.

Juneau, Alaska, June 11.—Governor Walter E. Clark received, today, the following despatch from Kodiak:

"Kodiak Island covered with twelve inches of ashes. Ashes have stopped falling, but conditions here are terrible. The people were taken aboard the revenue cutter Manning, which is leaving for other stations to obtain food. On some parts of the island the ashes are twenty feet deep. Vegetation and animal life have been killed and the wireless station at Kodiak destroyed. Conditions at Kariuk must be terrible."

Believe New Volcano.

Seattle, Wn., June 11.—The ashes that are falling on Fairbanks, Alaska and Dawson, Yukon Territory, in the Yukon Valleye, far from the coast are believed to have come from a new volcano center in the Alaska range.

The winds that blow from the ocean encounter high ranges of mountains before reaching the Yukon. This fact accounts for the dryness of interior Alaska. The same mountain ranges would prevent ashes from the coast volcanoes which are all near tidewater from reaching the interior.

Persons arriving at Fairbanks from the Mount Hayes country and who had not been informed of the outbreak in the Aleutian ranges are canonading as if a volcano was in the vicinity. These sounds could not have been blown from the coast.

No word has been received to day from the revenue cutters and the wireless still is out of business. Probably the next news from Kodiak will be brought to Seward by steamer.

FREEL VICTOR IN FIGHT.

San Francisco, June 11.—James J. Freel, president of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers union holding its eleventh annual convention here was victorious today in his fight against the seating of three Chicago delegates who were barred because the charter of their union had been annuled.

Freel took away the Chicago charter because the union joined in the strike of the pressmen. A report of the committee on credentials favoring the seating of the Chicago men was refused by President Freel, acting on his orders to return a second finding, the committee reported against the three contestants.

It was officially stated thatt he annulment of the Chicago charter will be passed upon by the committee on appeals and their ruling will come before the convention. This will give the Chicago delegates a vote on their own case.

FAILED IN ATTEMPT.

Washington, June 11.—An unsuccessful attempt to obtain unanimous consent in the senate toagree to transact only routine morning business in that body from June 17th, until June 29., during the political conventions period, was made by Senator Lodge to day. DEMONSTRATION PLAN FOR ROOSEVELT

Big Meeting Will Be Held Friday Night—Gum Shoe Campaign For Delegates — Cummins and La Follette Men Busy.

Chicago, June 11.—Roosevelt leaders tonight announced details of a mass meeting for Friday afternoon which will be staged at Chicago's largest theater as a spectacular preliminary to the opening of the Republican national convention next Tuesday. Congressman Wm. Kent of California, who made the announcement of the proposed demonstration said the principal addresses at the meeting would be delivered by Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, and Attorney Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco. Also it is probable that Governor Johnson of California, and Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, will speak.

Developments today indicated that the fight between the Taft and Roosevelt forces in the sessions of the national committee for contested seats was almost equaled by the "gum shoe" campaign being made for delegates listed in the uninstructed column. Both sides, it was learned had decided to attempt to get a possible balance of power through this source. Although many of the uninstructed delegates already have been pledged by state leaders to either Taft or Roosevelt, campaign managers privately have expressed ability to secure fifty or more for their candidate. In case the decisions by the national committee in the contest cases send President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt into the convention of practically an even basis, the uninstructed men may determine the final outcome of the fight, it is said.

R. R. McCormick of Chicago was today named by Wm. Flynn, of Pittsburg as the chairman of the committee which will meet and direct the activities of Roosevelt delegates before and during the national convention. Mr. McCormick will name his own list of assistants who will number about one hundred.

While the work of the Roosevelt and Taft leaders held the foreground during the day, the Cummins and LaFollette men were busy with plans for furthering the candidacies of the Iowa senator and the Wisconsin senator.

John McVickar of Des Moines, and Former State Senator F. L. Maytag, of Iowa, said that a large Cummins demonstration would be held Saturday night. It is planned to bring a delegation of a thousand or more Iowans into Chicago from Des Moines aboard special trains on that day. United States Senator Kenyon who went to Washington today, will return to Chicago in time to preside at the Cummins mass meeting.

Walter L. Houser, Senator LaFollette's campaign manager, said that a large delegation of Wisconsin people would arrive in Chicago Monday.

TWO BIRDMEN FELL TO DEATH

LIEUTENANT HAZELHURST AND TEACHER KILLED AT ARMY AVIATION SCHOOL.

Machine Collapsed a s They Rode At Terrific Speed—Were Preparing for Test to Meet Final War Department Requirement.

College Park, Md., June 11.—Lieut. Lighton W. Hazelhurst 17th infantry, U. S. A., of Macon, Ga., and A. L. Welch of Washington, D. C., were killed here at 6:13 tonight when a new army aeroplane of the Wright type in which they were flying fell to the ground at the army aviation school and was wrecked.

Lieut. Hazelhurst and Welsh had just started on their trip and had reached an elevation of about 200 feet when the machine suddenly crashed to the ground, death to both was instantaneous.

Welch was flying the machine and Lieut. Hazelhurst was a passenger. They had ascended a distance of about 200 feet when they dipped to come down and go up again. When about 30 feet from the ground and going at a tremendous speed, estimated by eye witnesses to be between 50 and 60 miles and hour the machine collapsed and dashed to earth. Apparently the weight of the engine and the two aviators caused the collapse. The machine struck the ground with terrific force and both men were instantly killed.

Capt. C. Def Chandler and several other army officials witnessed the crash. Captain Chandler immediately appointed a board of inquiry.

Machine in Use Three Weeks.

The machine in which the two men fell to their death was brought to the army aviation field three weeks ago by Orville Wright. Welch came with him from Dayton, O., and intended spending the season here as a teacher for the Wright company. Fifteen flights had been made in the machine without accident since it was brought here. Both Lieut. Hazelhurst and Welch had separately made successful trips in the machine early in the afternoon.

Welch, whose home was here, had been for three years in the employ of the Wright brothers and was said by Orville Wright to be one of their best teachers.

Planned to Make Test.

It was Welch's intention to make an effort to meet the final war department's requirements—a climb of 2,000 feet within ten minutes, carrying a load of 450 pounds. The aeroplane moved off steadily and flew the length of the field, rising 200 feet. As it was turned toward the group of army officers before the hangars Welch dipped sharply to indicate to the official timer that he was ready for the stiff test climb.

The dip carried the machine to within about 75 feet of the ground and then straightened out sharply too quickly, the observing army flyers thought. Without warning the aluminum wings crumpled, or collapsed upward so that they almost met above the engine. The machine dropped then turning her nose toward the earth and dived.

Men Died Instantly.

The accident occurred about 1,000 feet from the hangars, and when the first witness reached the wreck it was seen that both of the men were dead. Welch was buried in the debris, but the body of Hazelhurst had been catapulted fully 20 away after the machine struck. Welch's clothes were practically all torn from his body which was bruised and battered. Hazelhurst's skull was fractured and his head badly disfigured.

Their bodies were rushed in army automobiles to Walter Reed hospital in this city. Five minutes after the flight began the flag over the aviation field was halfmasted.

"NEAR BEING TREASON."

So Roosevelt Brands Actions of President Taft.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 11.—With an attack on his opponents in the Republican national committee and on President Taft, Col. Roosevelt tonight again protested against the course of affairs at Chicago. In a statement issued to day he said Mr Taft assumed "that the presidency is to be treated as a gift within the festoval of the politicians, in defiance of the duly expressed wish of the people."

"Such conduct," Mr. Roosevelt wrote, "comes dangerously near being treason to the whole spirit of our institutions, to the whole spirit of democratic free government."

The former president laid especial stress on the action of teh thirteenth district of Indiana, notwithstanding teh fact, he said, that teh Roosevelt men were clearly in the majority in the convention which was called to elect these two delegates.

APPEAL FOR MARINES.

Havana, June 11.—The news from Washington that orders for additional warships at Havana, had been countermanded, apparently the result of Orestes Ferrara's statements in the American house of representatives, has been received here with satisfaction at dissipating the peril of immediate intervention.

Despite this confidence, more appeals for marines are coming in from various points in Arinete, the most significant movement being the despatch of 200 marines to San Luis within the lines of the government troops for the purpose of protecting a plantation there.

Chicago, June 11.—Louis N. Seaman, former cashier of the Elgin National bank of Elgin, Ill., was arrested by government agents in Los Angeles, on a warrant charging embezzlement and misapplication of the funds of the bank.

The arrest was the result of alleged discrepancies in the accounts of the bank discovered over a year ago by national bank examiners.

The money unaccounted for, the examiners reported approximately $100,000. The losses were promptly made good by the directors of the institution and government agents were called in. Seaman left the employe of the bank more than a year ago and a few months ago entered the real estate business in Los Angeles.

The government agents say that Seaman invested and lost large sums of money in a Chicago concern in which he was interested and that his efforts to make it a paying venture were costly to the bank. The specific allegations in the charge against him are that he procured money from the bank on worthless drafts. One of the alleged worthless drafts was drawn against the city treasurer of South Bend, Ind.

Seaman gave bond of $5,000 to guarantee his appearance at that time. The bonds were provided by his sister Miss Josephine Seaman, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice R. Seaman.

The specific charge against Seaman was that he had paid out $9,000 to the Peters Paving company at Elgin when that firm was not entitled to receive the money. He denied knowledge of the alleged transaction.

SEEK TO ABOLISH COMMERCE COURT

HOUSE AND SENATE BOTH IN FAVOR OF THIS ACTION.

Court's Alleged Extravagance Is Criticized—Defender Says Body Has Aided in Expediting Business.

Washington, June 11.—Only the signature of President Taft now is required to abolish the commerce court of the United States. The legislating out of existence of that tribunal created only two years ago and which the supreme court of the United States recently declared had exceeded its powers, finally and definitely determined upon today when the senate by a vote of 36 to 23, defeated an amendment to make provision for maintaining the court in the executive, legislative and judicial appropriation bill. By this vote the senate reversed its own appropriations committee which had recommended the adotion of the amendment. This put both houses of congress in accord on the matter of abolishing the court. There is a likelihood, it was asserted in official circles tonight, that President Taft would veto the bill because of the court's elimination.

Of the votes cast in opposition to the court 26 were by Democrats and the remaining ten by Republicans. The Democratic vote in this column was as follows:

Ashurst, Bacon, Bryan, Chamberlain, Chilton, Culberson, Fletcher, Gardner, Gore, Hitchcock, Johnson, Johnston, Martin, Martine, Myers, Overman, Percy, Pomerene Rayner, Reed, Shively, Simmons, Swanson, Smith (Ga.); Tillman and Watson. The Republican negative votes was cast in the main by progressives but Senator Nelson and Heyburn joined them in opposition. The progressive Republicans voting thus were:

Bourne, Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Gronna, LaFollette and Poindexter.

Senator Thornton of Louisiana was the only Democrat who voted for the continuance of the court. The 22 Republicans voting in support of the court were:

Bradley, Burton, Cullom, Dillingham, DuPont, Gallinger, Jones, Lodge, Lorimer, McCumber, McLean, Oliver, Page, Perkins, Root, Smith (Mich.); Smoot, Stephenson, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren and Whitmore.

The court is composed of five judges who would be dispersed and take up their duties as members of the various circuit courts of appeal, if they are not dropped out of office altogether as proposed by some senators. The court's elaborate quarters here were furnished at considerable expense. The cases heretofore passed upon by the commerce court which involved only railroad litigation on appeal from decisions of the inter-state commerce commission again would be handled by the United States courts.

The discussion occupied most of the day's session of the senate. Speeches were made in favor of abolition by Senators Poindexter, Overman, Ashurst and Cummins, and in opposition by Senators Townsend and Barton. The court was attacked not only on account of its unique position but on the charge of extravagance. Mr. Overman alleged that its expenditures had been far beyond the necessity. Poindexter, Cummins and Ashurst said the court was unnecessary and undesirable. It was contended that its existence nullified the work of the work of the inter-state commerce commission.

MUSTERED OUT OF SERVICE.

Rock Island, Ill., June 11.—Because of its failure to keep its membership up to the proper standard, the Rock Island branch of the second division of the Illinois naval militia to day was mustered out. The equipment was ordered transferred to Peoria.

FIELD LABORERS BURNED.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—Fifty-nine field laborers were burned to death to day while asleep in a barn near Tambov, Central Russia, on a property belonging to Count Orloff Davydoff. The cause of the fire is unknown.

RABIES ON INCREASE.

Chicago, June 11.—Rabies is increasing in Chicago at a rate that gives the health department some concern, announced the daily health bulletin to day. Since Jan. 1 on 97 dogs examined 65 were found to have rabies and 32 persons whose cases have been investigated and treated have been found to be inoculated.

NINE GRADUATES AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Address Was Delivered By Judge Burroughs of State Board of Administration — Wallace Gibson Gave Valedictory—Graduates Prepared for Practical Work.

The annual graduating exercises of the Illinois State School for the Deaf took place Tuesday afternoon, a large audience being in attendance. The auditorium was tastefully decorated in red and white the class colors and above the stage was the class motto "Effort Brings Success" wrought in prominent letters. The address of the day was delivered by Judge Burroughs, member of the state board of administration. The class was presented by Miss Frances Wood head of the faculty to Supt. Gillett who awarded the diplomas.

The graduates were Pearl Etta Attig, Abingdon; Anna Cronkrite, Elizabethtown; Martha Mary Norton, Carrollton; Evetta May Reffey, Bath; Harry Ralph Atkinson, Chicago; Wallace Knowles Gibson, Helena, Montana, Marmaduke Christian Lystad, Chicago; Wm. Edward McGann, Chicago; Walter Rolla Scott, Beckmeyer. Rev. H. H. Mitchell gave the opening prayer and the benediction and the Johnsons orchestra furnished delightful music. Prof. C. Spruit served as interpreter for Judge Burroughs. Prof. Frank Read for Wallace K. Gibson the valedictorian and Prof. George H. Putnam for the class ode. Some paragraphs from the address by Judge Burroughs are given.

Address By Judge Burroughs.

The commencement address was made by Judge B. R. Burroughs, of the State Board of Administratin. He took for his subject "What Illinois is Doing for the Deaf." He spoke in part as follows:

"It means much for nine graduates to be able to come to a point of proficiency to graduate. It is gratifying to parents and friends of these young people. The problem which now confront these graduates, after the preparation of many years, is one attended with many difficulties.

"But thanks to our state they can be so equipped that they can do their work in the world, alone with their hearing brothers. Theh state of Illinois makes it possible for our children, to go out strong and well equipped for life's duties, and it is doing the same for the deaf.

"Years ago the state took steps to make it possible to throw around the unfortunate children, especially trained instructors, to so equip them for the duties of life. These teachers are the agents of the state in this work. Jacksonville is an educational center of many years, being centrally located, easily accessible abounding in churches and schools. This atmosphere is of the right sort for this especial work of instruction. I hope the people of this community recognize that this school is a mounment of what the state is doing in an educational way for its wards.

"You come here and find the premises in good condition; you observe their teachers, instructors and officers, charged with their care, and you will observe some deficiencies, perhaps, but you will observe the great anxiety on the part of Board of Administration, that the pupils may receive the greatest benefit. It is well to have a good mental plant, but it is the children that we want to help most. The Board charged with the conduct of 17 state institutions, is constantly on the road or in the office to plan work. Much of the success depends upon the vigilence of the managing officers and teachers, charge with their care. I think we would all agree, that the home is the cradle to the man in adult life are objects of admiration to the average man and woman. Every child must be looked after to it full development, if, those charged with it do not feel that way, they should not be in this work.

"I am glad to know that in this school we are able to graduate nine pupils this year and perhaps it would be well for me to direct some of my remarks to the class. You are now ending your school life. You have had instruction for many years from teachers and other officers charged with the management of the school. After to day you are to go out into the world of perhaps to your home, I hope you will be received to bring joy into their hearts, and will receive the same considerations from the mother's world. You deserve thus to be received and treated. The officers of the state, whose duties it has been to look after you will not cease to aid you in all commendable purposes. There should be in the heart of everyone of you, the full appreciation of the effort your teachers have outlayed upon you, for it is only by their efforts, that you have received the proficiency to which you are entitled to the diplomas awarded by the school.

"Speaking to the undergraduates, we feel that the coming wards of the state should be entitled to receive all aid that will tend to develop you in your life work. Do not get the thought in your minds, that, because of your handicap, effort is not necessary. Your associates, who have preceded you have demonstrated, that a successful graduate, is dependent upon his own efforts for success. We have the materials here and it is up to you, to measure up to the privileges afforded you. What a great satisfaction it is to be able to help along those thus handicapped. Many years ago it was thought that anyone hereft of hearing was a mere dependent, but no so to day. It is possible and it has been fully demonstrated, that our unfortunate brothers, that are fully equipped in these schools for the deaf can stand side by side with their hearing brothers and hold their own. I came to Illinois 45 years ago from Maryland and settled in Edwardsville. I have been up and down state and feel proud of what it has done. It is a great progressive state, educating its young and caring for those whose privileges are handicapped. I believe that the state will bend every energy to building up its citizens. The great measure of the success we attain is in doing the greatest we can do."

The valedictorian was Wallace Knowles Gibson whose essay theme was Oliver Cromwell. He told of the early life of Cromwell who was born April 25, 1599. "As a young man Cromwell became greatly interested in religious affairs. At 29 he was a member of the third parliment summoned by Charles I. and during its sessions Cromwell took an active part in the struggle against Popery. Twelve years later the civil wars came in which Cromwell took such a prominent part. He became captain of the parliment cavalry known as "Ironsides" and subsequently came a new form of government the "Commonwealth." Cromwell was the leading spirit put down the rebellion in Ireland and went to Scotland to prevent Charles from taking the throne there. Cromwell's power placed England at the head of Protestant Europe. During the remainder of his eventful life he met with opposition and treachery and his last days were far from happy. Chomwell has been criticised and condemned but he was a great statesman, and leader and accomplished much good in his life time."

The valedictorian then expressed the gratefulness of the class to the board of administration, the people of the state, the superintendent and faculty and especially the primary teachers who had started them on the road to learning. He closed with a word of farewell to the students. Then the class ode was given with graceful signs and Miss Wood presented the students for the diplomas which were awarded by Supt. Gillett who commended the the class for conscientious work and said that a feeling of sadness always tinged the commencement occasion as it marked the going of pupils who had been in the school for a number of years.

The benediction was pronounced and then while the orchestra played many in the audience went forward to extend congratulations to the graduates.

PROTECTION FOR GRAIN

Practically all corn has been planted in Morgan county and it will not be many weeks until the harvesting of wheat, oats and hay will be in progress. Many a dollar is lost because of the poor protection for harvested grain. Look over your sheds now, and if any repair work is needed, do it now instead of waiting until the grain is ready for storing. If you have not all the space you will need, why not make some building plans now. Be sure to let us figure with you for the lumber. It will mean that you will get the right kind of lumber and at the right prices.

Attack my faith with treacherous art,

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The June business meeting of the Pastor's Aid society of Grace church was held Tuesday afternoon in the cool parlors of the church. Dr. Miller being present offered prayer in the service of devotions and addressed the society concerning its earnest steadfastness in its work. He also requested that in his absence from the city Wednesday evening the society take charge of the mid-week prayer service, which the society will do this evening, extending an invitation to all the church to attend. The treasurer's report given by Mrs. Pitner showed that the payment made during the month on the church pledge has reduced the amount still unpaid to a trifle less than $2,600, a point which has been eagerly anticipated. After the discussion of plans for the summer work, a series of entertainments was suggested, the first a social to be held on the church lawn next Saturday afternoon and evening when sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake will be served. On July 4, coffee, cake, tarts and other articles suitable for a picnic supper will be served in Nichols park. Other entertainments will be planned to follow from time to time during the summer.

COMMITS SUICIDE

Miss Cora B. Dewees Ends Life by Drinking Carbolic Acid—Was Member of Well Known Family.

Miss Cora Belle Dewees ended her life some time Monday afternoon or night, by drinking carbolic acid. Her dead body was found at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the attic of her home, on Sandusky street. She was lying on her back with her head upon a pillow, her hands down at her side, and the bottle, which she had emptied, was two or three inches from her hand. Although Miss Dewees had been in poor health for several years, she had never, by word or action, intimated that she had ever though of taking her life. Her death comes as a great shock to her family and they will have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in the city and county. The coroner's verdict was that Miss Dewees committed the rash act during a period of mental aberration.

Miss Dewees and her sister, Mrs. Mildred E. Powell, had made arrangements for one of them to go uptown Monday afternoon. When the time came Mrs. Powell went and Miss Dewees stayed at home, saying that she was going to rest during the afternoon. When the sister returned in the evening and did not find Miss Cora at home, she inquired of her father, Cornelius Dewees, who supposed that she was about the house somewhere. Even when she was not found little was thought of it as she often went out riding with friends. But when night came and Miss Dewees did not return, Mrs. Powell became uneasy and called several friends over the telephone, making inquiry about her sister. She finally came to the conclusion that she had gone with some friend to the country and would come in later. She passed a restless night and at 4:30 arose and instituted a search and found Miss Dewees in the attic dead, with a bottle of carbolic acid at her side.

Coroner Skinner was called and held an inquest with the following jury: O. C. Buffo, foreman; J. Philip Read, Clerk; James Cully, John S. Shepard, A. A. White and Edgar Martin. The verdict was that the deceased came to her death by taking a dose of carbolic acid, administered by her own hand, temporary aberration of the mind being the cause.

Cora Belle Dewees was born April 7, 1885, in this county, on the old Dewees homestead, a few miles north of Joy Prairie station. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Dewees, her family being one of the oldest and most prominent in Morgan county. Her father is still living and is nearly 90 years of age. He was a prominent and successful farmer and a soldier in the Mexican war. The mother and one brother, James, died a number of years ago. Those surviving are the aged father, two sisters Mrs Powell and Miss Mary Dewees, and one brother, Elmer.

The deceased attended the Lockwood Female Academy and made a special study of art, in which she showed much talent, making many handsome pieces of work. She was a faithful and devoted member of the Central Christian church and was also a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance union and her death is mourned by a number of Christian sisters with whom she was associated. She was also a member of the Ladies of Loyal Mystic Legion.

Miss Mary Dewees, a sister, Mrs. Mildred E. Powell, with a party of friends, are now touring Europe, and the sad news of Miss Cora's death will be a great shock to them. Mrs. Powell was called to Europe on account of the illness of her husband, who is now in Switzerland, and she accompanied him there.

The funeral will be held at the residence, 1[illegible] Sandusky street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Walter E. Sjoonts, pastor of Northminster Presbyterian church. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Men will enjoy seeing the aviator host by wearing a Faultless negligee Shirt with the Soft Collars to match. Faultless shirts are sold by FRANK BYRNS Hat Store.

MASSON SEEN IN PRETTY FLIGHT

French Aviator Sails Over City at High Altitude in Trial Go—Spectacular Sight Witnessed by Hundreds.

Didier Masson, the French aviator, who will be seen to day and tomorrow in a series of exhibition flights at the Driving club park, south of the city, has the distinction of making the first successful flight ever seen in Jacksonville. Masson, as he sailed over city last evening in his biplane attracted the attention of hundreds of people, although his flight was unannounced, and people for miles in the country witnessed the spectacular sight. After having worked on his biplane all dayand seeing that everything was in perfect order he started his flight at 6:30. Arising to a distance of about 2,000 feet he directed his machine north and traveled over the city, circling about and returning to the park, where he was seen in a series of glides, dives and dips as he came again to land. A number of persons were so eager to see the bird man in his first demonstration of air travel that they found places on the top of the new Ayers bank building near the middle of the afternoon and remained there until the time of the flight. To be sure they had a fine view and felt amply repaid for the time expended in waiting.

The planes of Masson's machine are 11 feet across and 5½ feet wide, and the entire structure is of the aviator's own design, having been constructed in Los Angeles, Cal., under his special supervision. It is equipped with an imported rotary Gnome motor and has paragon propellers.

Massoon will make his first flight for to day at 2:30.

PUBLICITY NEED IS EMPHASIZED

A. L. Bowen Points Out Defects in Distribution of Relief For Poor.

Cleveland, June 12.—Speaking on the solution of the problems of rural public relief at the conference of the National Association of Poor Relief Officials at Cleveland today, A. L. Bowen, executive secretary of the Illinois state charities commission, advocated full publicity of the accounts and lists of the overseers of the poor. He favored also the publication of the homes of those in the county farms, the strict enforcement of the pauper acts which provide that relatives, when able, shall care for their poor and a general campaign of education to show the public how the public funds are criminally wasted and corruptly expended under the guise of charity.

Mr. Bowen also suggested annual local conferences of charities in every community of more than 5,000, whose function it shall be to keep the people informed on the best methods of relieving distress.

He said that in Illinois the state of public ignorance on the subject of poor relief distribution, borders on benighted darkness. He described the value of the overseer in the local political machine and how he operates to corrupt the electorate.

"He buys groceries, meats, coal and other supplies," said the speaker, "from the local political merchant and by means of a peculiar system of orders permits that merchant to short weigh the pauper and over weigh the tax payer."

"In old Roman days," he said, "the masters provided for the masses and the rabble free exhibitions in the arena. Today we distribute to them free groceries, free coal, free milk, free ice boxes and the like without discrimination or investigation. For fear one worthy may be overlooked we are asked to excuse the further pauperization of the 100 unworthy."

Speaking of conditions in Illinois he said that the state's attorney who should institute suit to compel relatives to support one of their number would be looked upon "as a curiosity." "Our county farms and state institutions," he said, "are full of inmates who might be cared for at home. Many of them have property, many of them have pensions, yet because they are a trifle hard to get along with, their children or relatives consign them to an indulgent and merciful but very easy state without a single qualm of conscience."

To the lack of family pride which prevails in this country he ascribed part of this free disposition to unload upon the public those who should be cared for in private homes.

"The publication," said he, "of all the facts about the distribution of public money for proper relief in any community would effect many cures so speedily that the language of the quack advertising doctor would fail of adequate terms to describe the miracle."

The speaker was of the opinion that no harm would befall the worthy poor by such publicity. "They seldom make their wants known directly," he said. "Let the burden of finding the worthy ones rest upon the public. If it be keene to its duty it will permit no suffering. I have no fears of the worthy suffering through a real, honest system of publicity, but it will drive to cover hordes of pests, parasites and barnacles who, in the absence of light, have their arms up to the elbow in the public treasury."

GATHER IN CHURCH BUILT IN A DAY

Eight Hundred Attend Service in Spartansburg, S. C., in Aladdin-like Structure.

Spartanburg, S. C., June 11.—Eight hundred persons worshipped tonight in Elbethel Methodist church of this city, which was completely built during the day.

The first nail was driven at six o'clock this morning by Mayor Augustus H. Kirby, eighty-four years old, who said tonight that the edifice was more handsome than Spartanburg's First Methodist church, which was dedicated in 1836 and took a year to build.

One hundred and fifty carpenters, painters, paperhangers, plumbers, electrical workers and other artisans working by a carefully arranged system, had the structure completed by sunset.

By half-past seven o'clock tonight the mission heads were installed, the aisles carpeted, the altar in place and decorated with flowers and a piano in place in the choir loft.

The mechanics agreed work was done as substantially as if six months had been put in on the contract.

Eighteen thousand persons watched the spectacle, and cinematograph men took thousands of feet of moving pictures.

PROF. H. W. JOHNSTON HERE.

Prof. H. W. Johnston came into the city yesterday from Rushville, where he had been to visit the scenes of his childhood. He called on a few friends in the city and left at 6:15 for Alexander to visit Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen and daughter, expecting to go from that place to Bloomington, Ind., his home.

Friends of the professor will be greatly rejoiced to learn that his health is excellent. He is looking remarkably robust and is as jovial and good natured as ever, a general favorite with all classes, something unusual for a man with his eminent literary attainments.

As "Ed" Howe Sees Life

In your family album you probably have a picture of a relative who was a soldier during the rebellion, and who had his picture taken in soldier clothse, with a revolver in his hand.

An old man, poor and deserted, is a pretty fair case of Realism.

Worthless people make most of the costs in court.

After two people have quarreled awhile, they pay no attention to the truth in telling their side of the "story."

Any girl who likes to shoot fireworks on the Fourth of July, is a Tomboy.

A fine sight is to see a farmer come to town with two mule colts following his team.

The eternal feminine question: "How much is it a yard?"

How honest are the people? How much do they exaggerate when they tell their side of the story? How much advantage are they willing to take when they are in control? How much gossip are they willing to retail, knowing it to be untrue? Are they, in short, tolerably short in morals?

No doubt you are greatly annoyed because people do not "do better." Try doing better yourself and you will find out why people are so slow about it.

A mob is powerful, not because it is right, but because people are afraid of it.

STATE NEWS.

Springfield is in a deplorable financial condition. It has reached its limits as a borrower, all the revenues for the next two months have been anticipated in the the obligations now confronting the officials and the treasury is in a badly demoralized condition. Mayor Schnepp says the city treasury has never been so low with the borrowing privilege worked to a limit and all current expenses will have to be met with the old time red warrant or creditors will have to wait several months for their pay.

William Kaufman, aviator, sent his outfit north on the Mississippi river, towed in a flatboat, as a hydroplane when Roy Garner, electrician, was drowned and Lawrence Brooman narrowly escaped a similar fate.

Jim Burns, a noted character, was recently released from the Pekin jail and signalized his freedom by trying to rob a man in broad daylight. He had the intended victim's pocketbook in his hand when detected and arrested.

A launch load of high school girls boating on the Rock river at Dixon came perilously near the dam when rescued by Warren M. Lalk, who lost his own life in the effort. The water power company will hereafter be compelled to stretch a strong wire 10 to 25 feet above the dam to prevent a similar occurrence.

A young man working for a poultry firm at Walnut wrote his name on an egg which went to a hotel in Dixon, whereupon a colored young woman seeing the name wrote a postal card as a joke and this inspired a letter from the young man and more correspondence until he was inspired to come to see the romantic correspondent, but one glance caused him to beat a hasty retreat.

William Hartley, a lone fisherman on an island in the Mississippi above Alton, has mysteriously disappeared. He had some money, as was supposed, and foul play is suspected.

Ulfa Beal, a German recluse in the vicinity of Freeport, lived for many years alone. He was evidently of a fine family and well to do, but so eccentric that the authorities took him in hand, cut his long hair, shaved him and bathed him and put on a suit of clean clothes. He complained bitterly and tried to get away. He will have a conservator appointed.

A huge gar seven feet long and weighing over 200 pounds was caught in the river near Joliet. It is called a man eater and is the third one that has been taken within the past two months. Fishermen say these creatures will account for the failure to find bodies of persons who have been drowned.

CELEBRATED TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Stice celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary by entertaining a company of friends at the Cafe Ratz Sunday afternoon. All the appointments for this function were charmingly made. The decorations in the dining room were most artistically arranged for which Killarney roses, peonies, and ferns were used. The color scheme of pink and white was beautifully used in both decorations and refreshments. An elegant six course luncheon was served which was greatly enjoyed. The luncheon table was covered with a handsome lace cloth, and a huge "Jack Horner Pie" adorned the center of the table from which pink satin ribbons extended to each plate. The place cards were very unique being miniature broilers. At each plate there was a tin nut case, shell shape, and a small candle holder with lighted candle. The drawing of the favors from the pie afforded no little amusement, the various articles being miniature tin cooking utensils containing mottoes. The reading of the mottoes caused much merriment. In every way the occasion was one of marked pleasure and keen enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Stice were the recipients of a number of useful presents. As the guests departed for their homes they wished their host and hostess many more years of happy married life.

The special edition was issued partially in honor of the installation of a new Goss perfecting press and partially from the fact that the editors desired to give the city of Clinton a good advertisement which should be sent broadcast through the land.

Fix up your house this spring

It is remarkable for how little money you can beautify and brighten up your home this spring---that is, if we help you.

We are in business here just to make the homes of this community more attractive, both inside and out---better to live in, better to keep, better to sell or rent.

For instance, our paint will make your home look like new. It will last for years and years, and insure your house against decay. Paint is cheaper than lumber and repair bills, and a lot quicker.

Let us advise with you on your painting job. We will help keep your pocketbook fat.

You will probably need new screen doors and windows and awnings perhaps. And maybe a lawn swing in which to sit on the hot summer days.

No matter what you are thinking of doing for beautifying your home, it will pay you to call and consult with us.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush, which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil of sunshine and of atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—It's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

MORNING EYE-OPENERS.

ADL EYE-OPENERS

Did Zimmerman make another home run yesterday? Look in the box score.

Giants take second game of series from the Cubs. There will probably be some battle this afternoon between the marvelous Marquard and Young Cheney.

Washington has broken all records for winning consecutive games on the road, having won eleven straight games.

* * *

By defeating St. Louis and the White Sox losing the Speed Boys have a firmer hold on first place.

* * *

The White Sox are having their troubles, the pitchers are all going bad and the team has fallen down in hitting and a big slump is looked for.

It was a good thing that Zimmerman was ousted from the game by the "Umps" for arguing or he might have duplicated his feat of Monday, making two circuit smashes in one game.

Johnny Kling's Boston Braves have won two games in succession. There certainly must be something wrong about them.

* * *

The Boston Speed Boys are starting a mad dash like Washington and have an advantage by being on top of the percentage column.

Question: If Marquard pitches today will the Cubs get walloped? Ask Sweeney.

The Pirates scored in every inning but two in their game with Brooklyn yesterday. The Dodgers only made seven errors.

* * *

The Senators are getting to be some strong finishers too, making all their runs in the last inning yesterday.

There is no comparison between the use of Gas and the use of other fuel. Our line of Gas Stoves run from $10.00 to $45.00. We sell on instalments.

Grain Letter.
Wheat—The opening prices on wheat were sharply higher induced by the bullish construction put on the government report. While there was fair commission house buying early and prices were sustained, outside buying orders were not sufficient to carry on the advance. Local traders took advantage of light trade to jump on the market and closing prices showed sharp break. Beneficial rains occurred in the northwestern over night and reports from this section of best. What few bad reports came from southwest, were only a re-hash of the news received last week, while there was a good many claims that rains came just in time to prevent serious damage. It was claimed from southwestern market that some points in Kansas and Nebraska were asking for bids on new wheat. The forecast is for continued unsettled weather and cooler temperatures. For the present we see nothing but a scalping market and believe that wheat should be bought on the sharp dips for moderate profits.

Corn—Market started firm, but soon disclosed a weak tone, only to rally again on some good local speculative buying in sympathy with the weakness in wheat; toward the close prices eased off. Receipts of cash corn continue to be liberal, but at present price there is good demand for shipper, and to day's sales were about ½c higher than yesterday's closing prices. It is the opinion amongst receivers here that receipts of corn will show a sharp falling off within a few days. Weather is splendid for the growing crop, but there are still scattered complaints coming in of re-planting on the whole, though new crop news is bearish as the acreage is conceded to be very large. Do not look for any decided movement in either direction, but would sell corn on the spots.

Oats—Market had fairly firm early start on bearish government report, considerable commission house buying early, but it was not sufficient to absorb all the offerings to local traders and closing prices show a cent or so loss. No possibility of any considerable quantity of new oats being received here in time for delivery on July contracts and with old oats being shipped out fast, we believe the short side of July very dangerous. While the deferred futures may ease off still further, the bearish government report we believe best profits will be made buying on breaks for investment. The crop is not made yet and being two to three weeks late any way will run into considerable hot weather before harvest. We believe the purchase of oats futures will prove profitable.

Provisions—Strong early, but closed lower in sympathy with the grains markets. The interests who have been buying for several weeks were taking profits on a small scale. Believe hog products should be bought on the reactions.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother'sFriend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

MEXICAN SITUATION

Well Known Missionary Tells of Conditions Across the Border.

The following is an able article by Rev. John Howland, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board, at Guadalajara:

"When, after more than a quarter of century of peace, prosperity and development along many lines, a country that has forged to the front of the republics of Latin America, suddenly lapses into revolution and from that slumps into a state of general disorder and, at the same time, involves a powerful neighbor in serious complications, it becomes a matter of common interest to discover the causes of the changes.

"In the first place, it should be understood that a considerable part of the trouble is not with Mexico, but with those who fabricate malicious falsehoods, misrepresent conditions, exaggerate facts and imagine things that might happen. Many of the things one sees in the papers or hears in the clubs or hotel corridors are enough to put to shame the very father of lies.

"There really does exist, however, a lamentable state of things, and it is difficult to foresee just what will be the outcome and the probable duration of the troubles. Some of the causes of this condition are not difficult to discover.

"It is a well known law that, when things are released, after having been kept below their normal level, the rise is sure to be attended by many irregularities before complete equilibrium is attained. The Mexican nation has been governed for years by a strong will and an iron hand, and at the same time, the masses of the people have been oppressed by the rich. When this old regime fell to pieces, and the people found that they could follow their desires, be they good or bad, it was to be expected that excesses would be committed before perfect adjustment could be attained.

"In the revolution of 1911 it was found that a few men could gather around some daring leader, seize arms and horses, ride to some town and capture it, take the public funds, impose loans and burn the public records, thus destroying damaging testimony and hopelessly entangling matters of deeds and pending lawsuits. Such an opportunity constituted an irresistible temptation for a number of persons in all parts of the country.

"Something of this nature almost invariably follows in the wake of national disturbances. When General Diaz came into power by the triumph of his revolution, he avoided this trouble by appointing the leaders to satisfactory positions and giving them a free hand to make way with rivals and to enrich themselves. Mr. Madero, in his book on the Presidential Succession, foretold the danger, but he tried to meet it as a civilian rather than a military leader. The plan was to pay off those that had aided him and discharge them, allowing them to retain their horses and arms. Unfortunately, many of them also retained the fondness for a lawless life, and it was easy for them to find causes for complaint and then to raise the cry of 'Down with Madero!'

"It is a part of economy of nature that a trophy follows quickly and relentlessly on the heels of disuse. While possessing an excellent constitution, the Mexican people had never had an opportunity to really know what democracy is, and much less practice it. When they found it thrust upon them, they were unacquainted with the rules of the game and ignorant of the manifold dangers that attend popular government. What is, undoubtedly, the best biography of President Diaz closes with these peculiarly significant words: 'The irrevocable verdict of history will be, He made a nation and destroyed a people.'

The Land Question Troublesome.

"The cause of many of the local disturbances is the agrarian question. Society in Mexico has always been based on what is practically the old feudal system. Most of the land is held by a few, and the poor live in abject poverty. As long as the latter were contented there was little trouble, but as soon as they began to agitate and to be restless under their bondage, it was inevitable that difficulties of many kinds should arise. In former times, a large part of the land, wood, pasture and tillage, was held in common. When the reform laws were adopted, the government ordered these lands to be divided among the indigenous residents, who had been accustomed to make use of them.

"The natural result was that, in a comparatively short time, outsiders or, occasionally, some of the thriftier of the members of the community created out of the greater part of these shares and the Indians found themselves deprived of everything. Often deliberate fraud was practiced, or there was no redress, as the poor man had no money for the lawyer for influence with the judge and the rich man had both. A part of the revolutionary plan adopted in San Luis Potosi was a promise to remedy the evils of the agrarian situation. This was made good by many to mean that lands would be restored to them without cost, and they were impatient of the delay in fulfillment of their expectations.

"One reason why there has been so much delay in restoring order is that many of the people have become accustomed to a dole by those in power, have lost faith in promises and are reluctant to risk life for those whom they distrust. The [illegible] owed its long [illegible] to the fact that it kept the [illegible] to keep [illegible] to take a man one [illegible] as a soldier, eat and roll [illegible] to banks to be [illegible] restored.

Better Days Ahead.

[illegible] who have [illegible] that the present disordered condition is transitory. While it is [illegible] where hundreds or whole [illegible] in [illegible] and educational training [illegible] of the wealth [illegible] are [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] sufficient number to settle the rest as soon as they come to understand the situation and find how to manage it. There is little likelihood of another dictatorship being established, and it would be of very short and turbulent duration should it have any success. The mass of the people want peace, but they value liberty far more.

"Americans and American interests have suffered, but far less than Mexicans. All parties do all they can to protect foreigners, and even the bandits plunder them only because they are rich.

Beware of Intervention.

"No one who has not a personal acquaintance with the situation can imagine what intervention would mean. National pride is one of the dominant traits in Mexican character, and it is to be doubted if the United States could establish and maintain order in all parts of the country. To attempt it would probably call for an immense expenditure of blood and treasure and would make Mexico uninhabitable for Americans for a long period of years. Crossing the border with an armed force would be a declaration of war, and nearly every Mexican would be called upon to resist, hinder and destroy, if not to kill; and no capitulation would be recognized by those not participating directly in it. The immense territory would probably have to be conquered, piece by piece, and heavily policed, and even then there would be, almost certainly, an interminable guerrilla warfare.

"When a fake telegram was published in Guadalajara, more than a year ago, that American troops had landed in Vera Cruz, a call was immediately issued and, before night, over five hundred young men had enlisted; and they have been training ever since. The call said, 'We may not be able to repel the invasion of the Colossus, but we will at least show them that they cannot desecrate our soil, except as they advance over the bodies of those who defend their national honor.' Most of the American residents in this country, even those who have the closest and most cordial, social and commercial relations with the Mexicans are so impressed with what intervention would mean that they are fleeing before the possibility or planning to combine in a desperate attempt to protect themselves here.

"Foreigners who settle or invest in Mexico do so at the risk of earthquakes, storms, plagues and other unavoidable calamities, one of which is the upheaval incident to a new arrangement of political, social and industrial elements. When the government is doing its utmost to avoid and remedy the difficulty, it would seem no fairer to interfere in the latter misfortune than in any of the former. Every one who is at all acquainted with the situation admits that all talk of 'protection' of life and property by invasion is the sheerest folly; so the only possible excuse for intervention would be revenge for unintentional loss, or the greed of conquest. It is to be hoped that neither of these motives will be allowed to determine the action of a nation like the United States."

NO MORE CONSTIPATION —WHEE! It's Me for Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

It is easy to compel bowel and liver activity for a time with calomel and nasty, sickening, griping castor oil, but the after effects are dangerous, and the real cause of the trouble is often not even touched.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

INTERESTING FEEDING EXPERIMENT.

A certain man in Morgan county, a good farmer and experienced feeder, fed sixty cattle eighty acres of shock corn the past winter and they didn't do extra well either. The crop was fairly good and saved in average condition.

Harrison Robinson, residing in the north part of the county, fed fifty cattle and they came through fat and slick doing remarkably well. The first named gentleman had to haul his feed in all kinds of weather and we know what that meant last winter and spring. Mr. Robinson fed the product of eleven acres of silo and a small ration of corn per animal and he ground or mashed the corn, cob and all, before feeding and fed about the crop of eleven more acres. He says the extra time required per day in feeding fifty animals was not more than half an hour, corn mashing and all.

Mr. Robinson is well known and can be communicated with at any time regarding the above statements.

This year he is drilling corn and cow peas together, using a peculiar kind of cow peas adapted to such [illegible] as they mature about the same time as corn. He will cultivate the crop one way only and use it for silo.

Mr. Robinson uses oil and lampblack for painting the inner side of his silo and says it makes a dressing well nigh imperishable.

FAMOUS DRIVERS OF AIR AND LAND

To Be Seen Today and Tomorrow at Jacksonville Driving Park.

Everything is n readiness for the big automobile, motrcycle and aeroplane races which open today at 2 p. m. at Jacksonville Driving park.

The aeroplane, racing automobiles and motorcycles are all in the best of trim and all eager to get in action at the local speedway. The aviators and their mechanicians have put in a couple of busy days assembling their machines and getting their aircrafts ready for the big aerial contests. Thousands of visitors are expected from the nearby towns, who will take the opportunity to witness this tremendous carnival of speed today and tomorrow.

War on Aeroplanes.

Hoover has been supplied with a new aeroplane, a 60 horse power motor. With that machine he hopes to excel Masson. The Mills aviators and Masson are the greatest rivals in the aeroplane manufacturing business. A fight between the stars of the aeroplane team will be a good card. The advertisements sent out by the management read that the show goes on rain, shine or cyclone, said Masson and Hoover yesterday. Last Saturday and Sunday he demonstrated in Quincy that they fly in any and all kinds of weather. "I have promised the people that I will fly and if they come out today or tomorrow to see me fly they will never be disappointed," said Masson," and I can say the same about by comrade aviator, Hoover."

Emergency Hospital on Grounds.

Manager Twedman has provided a chief surgeon and three assistants, one of whom will be in constant attendance on the ground, and an emergency hospital has been fitted upon the grounds in case of accidents.

Lecture on Aeroplanes.

Professor Gibson of the University of Cambridge, England, the noted authority on aeronautics, will deliver an explanatory lecture on the aeroplanes one hour before the opening of teh show, and will describe and explain each part and working of the aeroplane. He will also answer any questions that his audience may desire to ask. This part of the program will start at 1 p. m.

The street car company has made special preparations for the handling of the big crowds and cars will be plentiful to accommodate all those wishing to attend the races. The admission to se the wonderful meet will be 50 cents. Automobiles and all sorts of rigs free.

COMPLETED INSPECTION.

Auxiliary Committee Will Make Report to State Charity Commission.

The auxiliary committee of this county, connected with the State Charity commission, consisting of E. E. Crabtree, Mrs. J. A. Parsons and Dr. H. C. Campbell have completed their inspection of the county poor farm and of the county jail. The result of their inspection will appear in a report issued by the state commission later on.

The state issues a blank on which are sixty or more questions to be answered. The report will show that at the county poor farm there was a great need of a better water supply, especially in case of fire. There is also a need of more attendants both for the men and the women departments. The walls of the building were also found to be in a bad condition and that some of the basement was greatly in need of cement. The plant at the jail was inspected and conditions noted. The questions were quite specific and consequently demanded detail answers. It is believed by the committee that the state will finally take charge of the various 'alms houses of the one hundred and two counties of the state and by this management many of the defects can be remedied.

WERE GIVEN CHARIVARI.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Challiner of Joy Prairie were given a genuine charivari Tuesday night by about 150 of their friends. Five auto loads met at Walter Shoemaker's home about 9 o'clock and from there proceeded to the home of the newly-weds. The noise makers and well wishers were royally received and were treated to an abundance of cigars and good things to eat. An hour or more was spent in a social way and with music and the occasion was one of much pleasure for all present.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT LIBERTY.

An ice cream and strawberry social was held Tuesday night at Liberty church, west of the city, and was well patronized, a number attending from this city. The society had planned to hold the supper about a week ago but on account of bad weather it had to be postponed.

TUBERCULOSIS INFIRMARY.

The clinic held Tuesday morning at the tuberculosis infirmary was well attended. There were nine patients given treatment and one person was given his first examination. A few visitors were also present. The clinic was in charge of Drs. Milligan, Dewey and Hardesty.

NEW TEACHER APPOINTED.

At a recent meeting of the board of education of the Waverly public schools, Miss Sylvia Clark of this city was elected teacher for the eighth grade for the coming year.

PURCHASED NEW AUTOMOBILE.

Harry Allen of Winchester and Elmer McCullough of Riggston were in the city Tuesday enroute from Peoria in a new Case five passenger automobile, which Mr. McCullough has just purchased.

Walter Holley left Tuesday for Peoria and from there will go to Milwaukee, Wis., where he will enter the employ of the Harley Davidson Motorcycle company.

Renew Your Vitality.

Do Not Waste Your Strength by Neglecting the Help Now Offered for You to Quickly Rebuild Nervous System.

A man or woman afflicted with a debilitated condition has little chance for happiness, as the trouble always produces a mental depression that causes the sufferer to look on the gloomy side of life, be dissatisfied with the present and have small hope for the future.

Are you in this run down, debilitated condition? Do you tire easily, sleep poorly and feel half dead most of the time? If you are, you can get immediate relief and renew your ability to fight life's battles by letting this great Tonic build you up and restore your strength. Don't drag around, feeling miserably and hopeless another day. You will positively be astonished how quickly "Tona Vita" will start you on the road to health. The tonic is sold with the distinct understanding that it must renew your health or the price is refunded.

The symptoms of nervous debility are susceptibility to coughs and colds, weak back, cold feet, bad memory, poor circulation, constipation, lack of energy or vitality, nervousness, stomach trouble and uneasy sleep. Nervous debility is caused by the strain and worry of modern life and the country is filled with hundreds of half sick, worn out, nervous people.

Anything, to be successful, should add to the happiness of the human race. No medicine ever before sold in the United States has been so tremendously successful as the wonderful new tonic, "Tona Vita." The reason is plain, "Tona Vita" is bringing back health and happiness to thousands of discouraged, run down men and women.

Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is an assistant remedy to "Tona Vita." It is to be used in cases of chronic constipation. There is no plant known to modern medicine as thoroughly reliable and harmless as rhubarb. It is nature's own laxative, and instead of straining the intestines. Like other drugs, tones them up and gives them new strength. Lee's Rhubarb Laxative is the safest possible laxative for children and they like the taste. It should be in every household.

These two great preparations are sold in Jacksonville by Glover & Shreve.

Burley Jones of Franklin was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
